

Bohdi's Revenge Race Course: April 22, 2012, Folly Beach Fishing Pier (101 E. Arctic)

Park (free) before 8:00 at the Folly Beach Fishing Pier and check-in at the beach access near the pier building.

RACE COURSES

Racers Meeting – 7:30 am

Races Begin – 8:00 am

Awards – 10:00 am (approximately)

All racers will have a beach start at Start/Finish line.

Intermediate racers will make one 2-mile loop out through the surf, around all buoys and return to shore at the Beach Landing. Racers will leave boards with handler and have a 50 yard run through the horseshoe with paddles and a straight beach sprint at the end to finish back at the starting line with paddles.

Elite racers will make two loops with one beach landing in between.

They will make a 25 yard beach sprint through the horseshoe between loops (with paddles). Board handlers will assist and racers will return to the water and repeat the 2 mile course loop and will finish with the 50 yard straight beach sprint to finish at the starting line.

Note: Distance of race course to pier is over 200 ft at all times. Racers should honor buoys and be aware of fishing lines.

RULES

- All racers are required to wear leashes and have Coast Guard approved PFDs on body or board.
- Knee paddling is permitted through the break. Once past the break, racers should take only 5 strokes on knees before standing.
- Drafting is permitted only if it is same gender, same race.
- If you or your board causes someone to fall and become injured, stay with them until race support staff can assist.
- Wave paddle over your head if you need assistance.
